Michael DeWolf II Named General Manager of The Speakeasy Murder

Orlando, FL — [1/06/26] — EG Murder Media LLC announces that Michael DeWolf II has been named General Manager of The Speakeasy Murder, the company's flagship immersive theatrical experience in Orlando, Florida.

Effective immediately, DeWolf will oversee all operational and strategic aspects of The Speakeasy Murder, including daily operations, team leadership, guest experience, and continued growth as the production expands into new markets.

Gary Litman, Co Founder of EG Murder Media LLC noted: "Michael has been instrumental in the growth and success of The Speakeasy Murder," DeWolf brings more than a decade of experience in guest service and operations with The Walt Disney Company, where he developed a deep expertise in hospitality-driven entertainment, large-scale operations, and experience driven guest service. His background in delivering world-class guest experiences, combined with his hands-on leadership within The Speakeasy Murder, positions him to guide his team and the production through its next phase of growth.

"Michael has an exceptional ability to merge operational discipline with immersive storytelling," said Erik Hastings, Co-Founder of EG Murder Media LLC. "His years at Disney shaped his understanding of guest experience at the highest level, and that perspective has already elevated The Speakeasy Murder. We're confident his leadership will continue to raise the bar as we expand."

As General Manager, DeWolf will focus on strengthening operational systems, expanding partnerships, and ensuring consistency and quality across all performances while preserving the unique, interactive nature that defines the experience.
